DIMENSIONS
Volume 18 Index

Authors
Adams, Polly and Taylor, Michae1l K.
“A developmental approach to woodworking for young children,” Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 16-19. Numerous ideas are presented relative to a developmental approach to establishing and maintaining a woodworking center.
Barclay, Lisa K.
18, No. 1 (October 1989), pp. 8-10. Early childhood education in Taiwan is reviewed.
Bolen, Lu
“The importance of the arts in the early childhood curriculum,” Vol. 18, No. 1 (October 1989), pp. 11-13. Justification for inclusion of the arts in early childhood cur-rricula is presented.
Bowman, Barbara
18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 27-31. Issues involving child care in the 1990s are adressed with recommendations provided to meet the challenges of the next decade.
Caldwell, Bettye “Educare: A new concept for our profession,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 3-6. A reexamination of child care in terms of what we do and how we communicate it to those in and outside the field.
Cellitti, Anarella
“Young children can learn Spanish,” Vol.
18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 19 and 31.
Activities are presented which allow children to learn Spanish in a developmentally appropriate manner.
David, Carol
“A preliminary study of mainstreaming in a Louisville, Kentucky, preschool,” Vol. 18, No., 3 (April 1990), pp. 20-22. Results of a preliminary study to assess teachers’ attidudes toward preschoolers with disabilities.
Green, Connie
“Assessing kindergarten children’s writing,” Information pertinent to the developmental stages of compositional writing is presented and suggestions to teachers on how to encourage and evaluate composition.
Griffin, Sherri
“Go fishing to teach respect for nature,” Vol.
18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 8-9 and 32.
Conservation of natural resources is introduced and taught to preschoolers through a variety of activities presented.
Humphries, Janie Hotz and Silliman, Benjamin
“As parents go to the polls, children can play along,” Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp 14-15. Teaching democracy through developmentally appropriate activities is outlined.
Jennings, Clare and Terry, Gweneth “Children’s stories: A natural path to teaching thinking,” Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), pp 5-8. The use of children’s stories to teach thinking skills is explored.
Perimutter, Jane C.
“Fostering children’s fantasy play,” Vol. 18,
No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 23-24. Ideas are presented to help teachers promote fantasy play in their classrooms.
Skripkelis, Audrey
“Going places with young children,” Vol.
18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 2-6. A justification for using field trips for young children as well as ideas for teachers to insure maximum learning occurs are described.
Stegelein, Dolores A.
“Kentucky’s statewide parent survey on child care needs and resources: Implications for policy and research,” Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), pp. 9-12. Results of a parent survey are presented which define child care needs or Kentucky parents.
Timberlake, Pat
“Let’s cancel graduation,” Vol. 18, No 3 (April 1990), pp. 10-12. Justifications for cancelling graduation exercises in preschool classes are presented and discussed.
Vaghen, Elizabeth “Everything under the sun: Outside learning,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 20-22. Description and use of outside learning centers for young children is presented with specific ideas listed for each center.
Ward, Christina D.
“Possibilities at their fingertips,” Vol. 18,
No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 7-9. The merits and problems of using microcomputers in preschool classrooms are discussed.
Wardle, Francis
“Who has ten fingers and light brown skin and likes to sing ‘Bingo’?; Identity development of biracial children,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 24-25 and 31. Interracial children are unique challenges to early childhood teachers. Ideas for teachers to use in establishing a classroom sensitive to their needs are presented.
Warner, Laverne
“Basic musical concepts for preschoolers,” Vo. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 13-14.
Ideas for teaching basic musical concepts to preschoolers are discussed.
Wells, Janet R. and Burts, Diane C.
“On-line in the classroom,” Vol. 18, No. 4
Classroom technology “Possibilities at their fingertips,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 7-9, by Christina D. Ward.

Curriculum
“Children’s stories: A natural path to teaching thinking,” Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), pp. 5-8, by Clare Jennings and Gwenthian Terry.
“Going places with young children,” Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 3-6, by Audrey Skrupskelis.
“Go fishing to teach respect for nature,” Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 8-9 and 32, by Sherri Griffin.
“As parents go to the polls, children can play along,” Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), pp. 14-15, by Janie Hott Humphries and Benjamin Silliman.
“Ideas: Crayons and markers,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 15-18, by C. Sybil Waldrop and Alma May Scarborough.
“Young children can learn Spanish,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 19 and 31, by Anarella Cellitti.
“Everything under the sun: Outside learning,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 20-22, by Elizabeth Vaughn.

Multicultural education
“Who has ten fingers and light brown skin and likes to sing ‘Bingo’? Identity development of biracial children,” Vol. 18, No. 4 (Summer 1990), pp. 24-25 and 31, by Francis Wardle.

Special needs children

Reviews
Children’s books
Banks, Merry, Animals of the Night, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.
Goodall, John, The Story of the Seashore, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.
Greeley, Valerie, Where’s My Share?, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.
Hoban, Julia, Amy Loves the Snow, Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), p. 22.
Larrick, Nancy, Songs from Mother Goose, Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), p. 22.
Markle, Sandra, Exploring Spring, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.
The SACUS Editorial Board invites applicants for the positions of editors of the following columns in Dimensions:

Children’s Books and Recordings
Professional Literature
Reviews of Research

Dimensions column editors should be recognized by professional peers as scholars in the field of early childhood education and in one or more specific sub-fields. Experience in writing and publishing in early childhood publications is highly desirable. Columnists will write or edit columns for four issues of the journal. Depending upon timeliness and other factors, columns may not appear in every issue of the journal. The columns will be subject to review by the Editorial Board before publication.

To apply, send a one-page application with complete mailing address and telephone numbers, the three to five areas of expertise in early childhood (infants and toddlers, parent education, etc.), and references for relevant published articles, if any, to:

Elizabeth F. Shores, Editor
Dimensions
P.O. Box 5403 Brady Station
Little Rock, AR 72215

Deadline for applications is Oct. 20, 1990.

The Editorial Board also invites applicants for positions as reviewers or editorial consultants for the journal. To apply, send a one-page application, mailing address and telephone numbers, the applicant’s three to five areas of expertise, and references for relevant published articles, if any. Mail applications to the above address.

SACUS

Resolutions Guidelines

(This excerpt from the SACUS Policy Manual is published here according to SACUS policy.)

Resolutions may be submitted by:
1. The Executive Board of a state affiliate organization
2. The Executive Board of a local affiliate or a state affiliate organization
3. Twenty-five members of SACUS who have attached their signatures to a resolution
4. The SACUS Advisory Board
5. SACUS Committees
6. The SACUS Board of Directors
7. The Public Policy Council

Introduction of Resolutions:
1. Resolutions shall be received by the Chairperson of the Resolutions Committee or the SACUS President no later than 30 days prior to the annual SACUS Business Meeting.
2. Resolutions from the SACUS Board of Directors may be submitted to the Resolutions Committee at pre-conference Board meeting through the liaison to the Public Policy Council chair.
3. Emergency resolutions must be submitted to the Committee on Resolutions and Paperwork prior to the Board Meeting on Resolutions held at a conference.

Format for submitting and processing a resolution:
1. Resolutions must be typed and double-spaced.
2. Resolutions must include the sponsor(s), the original signature(s), address(es) and telephone number(s) of the officers or members signing the resolution, name and addresses for dissemination.
3. Resolutions must include a statement of the process and/or disposition for implementing the intent of the resolution.
4. Those submitting resolutions must initiate an appointment with the Resolutions Committee no later than 24 hours prior to the annual SACUS meeting for purposes of clarification and to receive recommended input from the SACUS Board of Directors.
5. The final draft of the resolution must meet a deadline determined by the Resolutions Committee.
6. The SACUS Board of Directors must receive copies of regular resolutions at the first session of the Board meeting at the annual conference and emergency resolutions at the Board meeting prior to the SACUS Business Meeting - Resolutions.
7. Copies of the resolutions shall be distributed by the Resolutions Committee at or before the SACUS annual business meeting.
8. Resolutions shall be approved by a simple majority of the members present and voting at the business meeting.
9. An announcement of the approved resolutions shall be printed in Dimensions.

Issues of concern which were not presented or processed as resolutions may be introduced from the floor at the SACUS annual business meeting for the consideration of the Board of Directors.

Porter, Sue, One Potato, Vol. 18, No. 2 (January 1990), p. 22.
Rockwell, Anne, Rockwell, H., The Toolbox, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.
Ryder, Joanne, Under Your Feet, Vol. 18, No. 3 (April 1990), p. 27.

New products

Professional literature

Research